The Snowfields visit Albury

Albury will experience a high country invasion of alpine pleasures and products when the Snow Expo 06 comes to town on Sunday, May 21.

The Commercial Club Albury is hosting the event and is the major Expo sponsor. The Expo promises to be an informative and fun day out with something for the whole family – you can even see snowflakes being made.

Event organiser Christine Stewart said that the Expo would be a fantastic opportunity for visitors to experience all that's available this winter at our nearby snowfields.

"There'll be ski and snowboarding waxing demonstrations, the latest snow sport equipment and clothing, new resort attractions plus information on the wonderful accommodation and fine dining available in our alpine regions," Mrs Stewart said.

"Representatives from Falls Creek, Thredbo, Hotham, Buller, Buffalo and Selwyn will be in attendance as well as local and regional providers to let people know what's on, where to stay and how to get there."

The Expo will also feature the Snowrider entertainment van from Mt Buller and Pete the Snow Dragon from Falls Creek. There will be valuable prizes and giveaways throughout the day.

"There really is an alpine experience to suit everyone and it's all being brought to our doorstep here in Albury at this year's inaugural Expo," Mrs Stewart said.

Admission to the event is by gold coin donation with all proceeds going to the children's ward at the Albury Base Hospital. The Expo is scheduled for 10am to 4pm on May 21.

MEDIA NOTE (Photo opportunity) – AlburyCity Mayor, Dr. Arthur Frauenfelder will launch the Snow Expo 06 tomorrow, Tuesday May 9 at 12.30pm in the Foyer of the Albury Base Hospital. The launch will feature an appearance by Pete the Snow Dragon from Falls Creek.
